

DESIGN PROPOSALS!!

+ GIVING, RECEIVING FEEDBACK

WEEK 7, STUDIO DAY 1

AWARENESS TRAINING

Sometimes, when you're feeling your lowest, the real you is summoned.
And you understand, maybe for the first time ever, how grand you are,
because you discover that vulnerable doesn't mean powerless,
scared doesn't mean lacking in beauty,
and uncertainty doesn't mean that you're lost.

Don't be afraid to find out who you really are.
Because in those fleeting moments you'll summon such beauty and strength that,
in no time at all, you'll fully grasp your magnitude.

-Mike Dooley

SPECIFICS → PREP

Email your slides to me

Arrange to record your presentation

- Hand off a phone camera to someone else in the class
- For your use only

PEER FEEDBACK

Audience will fill in slips for the team presenting:

- What did the team do well in their presentation?
- What might the team consider doing differently next time?

GIVING CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM (REMINDER)

- 1. Be direct
- 2. Express concern
- 3. Express appreciation
- 4. Not personal
- 5. Focus on improvement (caring and clear)

COMING UP NEXT!

Project Day 2:

- System Diagrams – breaking a large problem into parts
- HOMEWORK <watch Donna's video> if not done already

<https://vimeo.com/181090371/0e1b8ce946>

- Finalize team direction
 - “Go / no-go” feedback from mentors

AND NOW! PROPOSAL PRESENTATIONS...

- 12 minutes each
- Record (for personal feedback purposes)
- Other teams give feedback (1 – 2 slips per team, for each presentation)
- Mentor will be grading during presentations
- Send the presentation to your mentor
- Good Luck! Have fun!